DESIGNED BY MATTHEW WEATHERLY

Introduction

Sequel Studio is born from the design language of Sequel 20 and brings its own personality to the Sequel family—light, warm, contemporary, and thoughtfully refined.

Designed for modern workspaces that demand simplicity, performance, and effortless coordination across every component.

Extending the Sequel Legacy

Sequel Studio builds on the strengths of Sequel 20 Office in a focused four-piece collection. It introduces satin-etched Dune glass, warm Bronze accents, and durable new finishes designed for today's modern workspaces.

COMMON QUESTIONS

1. Is Sequel going away?

- Absolutely not. Sequel 20 remains our flagship office system. Sequel Studio adds another expression to the Sequel family, offering a light, warm, contemporary aesthetic with the same thoughtful design and quality.

2. Why should I have both on the floor?

- Sequel 20 represents timeless warmth and craftsmanship; Sequel Studio brings a refined, modern personality. Together, they show customers that BDI offers both classic and contemporary solutions under one trusted name.

3. Can parts or hardware be swapped between the two?

- No. Each collection is intentionally distinct, with materials and details unique to its design.

4. Will more pieces or shelving be added?

- Not at this time. The four Studio pieces perform beautifully in unison, supporting up to 15 workspace arrangements. Neo Walnut also coordinates naturally with BDI's Natural Walnut, allowing thoughtful pairing with pieces like Eileen shelving.
